Two attribution rules, two sides of the same disease donor-level properties of the genes each model selected, against unselected genes matched on the size of their AD shift

